Board Policy

Section 2000 Governing Board

2015 RECRUITING NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Board Action: APPROVED

Effective Date: 9/16/15

In order to draw Board of Director member candidates from the widest possible number of interested, active, well-informed citizens and parents, the Executive Director/Principal shall publicize widely all public Board meetings, committee openings, and community-related school events and shall encourage the participation of parents/guardians and members of the professional and business community in these activities.

The Director shall publicize school Board openings well in advance so that prospective Board candidates will have time to investigate the responsibilities of Board membership and comply with legal requirements, as well as requirements of School bylaws and charter.
